Ford-Kennedy Assassination Plot Story

Jacksonville, Fla.

An unemployed service station attendant told FBI agents he was recruited to assassinate President Ford and Senator Edward Kennedy by a guerrilla group armed with rifles, grenades and rocket launchers, authorities said yesterday.

John Clayton Massey, 32, is being held under $100,000 bond on charges of conspiracy to kill the President.

Authorities, who requested a psychiatric examination for Massey, said they had nothing other than Massey's story to point to any kind of guerrilla group.
